

Code of Ethics

CanGift requires that its members and exhibitors adhere to this Code of Ethics, adopted by the CanGift Board of Directors. As a CanGift member, you agree to observe the highest standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility at the CanGift Markets, by:

- Ensuring your conduct and that of your staff, agents or persons under your control, do not reflect negatively on the Association and/or its members.
- Respecting the rights and privileges of all parties associated with CanGift in a manner consistent with this Code and striving to enhance the image, reputation and standing of the Association and/or its members and exhibitors.
- Adhering to the Market's rules and regulations as outlined in the Exhibitor Manual including effective show security and all health & safety procedures.
- Refraining from entering another exhibitor's booth, handling a product or taking a photo at any time, without express permission from the other exhibitor.
- Any form of theft is a criminal offence and will be handled in the same manner as it would outside the show floor. Authorities may be contacted as warranted.
- Being considerate of neighbouring exhibitors and ensuring that your exhibit does not interfere with their ability to conduct business.
- All dealings with CanGift staff and all stakeholders will be conducted at all times in a professional, respectful and courteous manner.

Members who do not adhere to these standards may subject themselves to discipline, including without limitation, suspension or termination of membership and/or loss of booth space, at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.
